SUMMARY OF STUDENT RULES

INTRODUCTION

The student regulations are intended to set and maintain acceptable standards of behavior within the college community, to encourage individuals to accept their obligations to the community, to protect the rights of members of that community and to participate freely in the educational activities of the College and to help maintain the reputation of the Triumphant College.

Please note that the College Policies and Regulations below govern the student conduct and behavior as well as the use of particular facilities and services. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with these regulations and others contained in the policy documents available in the library.

STUDENT TO LECTURER RELATIONSHIP	STUDENT TO STUDENT RELATIONSHIP	STUDENT'S PERSONAL DISCIPLINE
A lecturer is in a position of a parent over the student (legally referred to as in loco parents) as such students are required to treat their lecturers with due respect. In line with this, it shall be an offence for a student to:	As already stated, these rules are meant to create a harmonious environment for sustainable education. Mutual respect between fellow students is mandatory, as such it shall be an offence for a student to:	Personal discipline is the basis of proper academic achievements.
